

Application for Consent to Wind-up or Dissolve a Charity

Section 16(2)(c) of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005

Please read 'Making Changes to your Charity' on the OSCR website at www.oscr.org.uk before completing this application form. This form is not applicable if you are applying to dissolve a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation (SCIO). Some of the information you give in this form will become publicly available on the Scottish Charity Register. These sections are marked below with an asterisk (*).

Q1. Charity registration details

Charity name *

Scottish Charity Number *

Q1a. Charity contact details

OSCR must keep a register of charities known as the “Scottish Charity Register” (“the Register”). Under the 2005 Act the Register must contain a separate entry for each charity entered in it which contains the principal office of the charity, or where it does not have such an office, the name and address of one of its charity trustees.

The principal office address can be your charity’s address, the address of a third party acting on your behalf, or any other address you choose. However, it must be an address at which you will be able to deal with all the official letters and notices you receive from OSCR.

Where the charity does not have a principal office, then you should provide us with the name and address of an individual who is a charity trustee.

OSCR will direct its communication to the principal office of the charity or the specified charity trustee. Information received from OSCR should be shared with all the charity trustees, as they are jointly responsible for managing the charity.

You must let us know if there are any changes to the details you have provided in this section to make sure that the charity will continue to receive important information from us, and that the information entered in the charity’s entry in the Register is up to date. You can update these changes using OSCR online.

If no, tell us why you have not made the changes in OSCR online:

Q1d. Withholding the principal office or charity trustee name and address from the Scottish Charity Register

Under Section 3(3)(b) of the 2005 Act each charity's entry in the Register is required to include the principal office of the charity or, where it does not have such an office, the name and address of one of its charity trustees.

Under section 3 (4) of the 2005 Act an organisation has the right to ask us not to publish its principal office or trustee's name and address on the publicly available Scottish Charity Register.

We can only exclude the details from the Register if we believe that publishing this information is likely to jeopardise the safety or security of any person or premises. We would not normally withhold an address simply because it is a home address.

OSCR requires that the charity explores alternative options for the principal office of the charity or name and address of one of its charity trustees, before we consider any request for withholding these from the Register. For example, using an alternative charity trustees' contact details or a P.O. Box.

If you consider that the address should not be shown on the Register, please explain why:

Q2. Applicant details and/or correspondence address for this application

Please only enter details here if the applicant is not the same as the charity contact, or if correspondence for this application should be addressed to a different address from the charity contact address at Q1a.
